50km Outside Oudtshoorn at the foot of the Swartberg Mountains

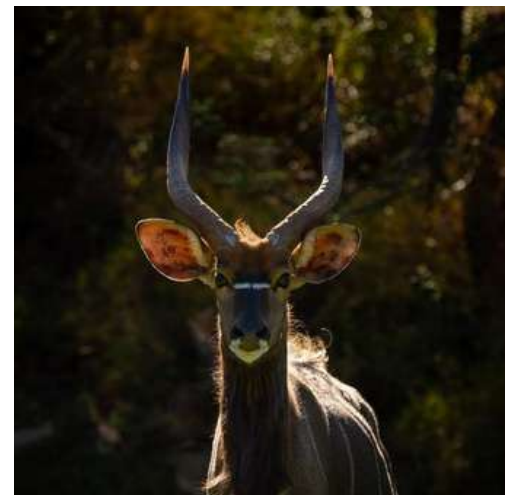

Klein Karoo, Garden Route, Western Cape, South Africa.
Oudtshoorn Luxurious B&B
& self-catering
Accommodation

This owner managed 4star luxurious accommodation, Wildevondkloof, is a 4,000-hectare private game reserve, located on the outskirts of the famous ostrich-farming town Oudtshoorn in the Western Cape. Here, in the semi-arid, acacia and aloe-peppered Karoo – sandwiched between the Outeniqua Mountains in the east and the Swartberg in the west - a plethora of antelope species thrive; giraffes, kudu, to dainty duiker, cape zebra, nyala, gemsbok, impala, black and blue wildebeest, klipspringer, red hartebeest, eland, a collection of smaller mammals (porcupine, baboon, and mongoose), and thriving birdlife.
